Programs:

Activities at Palmer Library went strong throughout the month of February. Children and their families enjoyed regularly scheduled programs and were treated yet again to another special installment of Storytime. A member of the fire department visited the library on Saturday, February 22nd and shared their favorite kids’ books. Audience members were welcome to ask questions and take pictures. Thank you to the Palmer community for being so gracious in making these Saturday programs a great success!

Thanks to the Friends of the Palmer Library, we are now able to offer patrons a glow kit! A growing trend in Storytime and home celebrations, glow in the dark themes have become popular. Our library is excited to have 3 black lights and a handful of glow items to offer our patrons to use at home.
